

Tax Fact #9

In Connecticut:
94,872 have income over $200,000;
27,275 have income over $500,000; &
11,739 have income over $1 million ***

President Bush lowered tax rates for high-income filers. President Bush lowered capital gains rates. Failed Bush economic policies have led to huge deficits and an enormous recession.

Connecticut should follow the lead of President Obama. Preserve services and raise taxes on those who have high income. Invest in the future; invest in jobs

Prevent cuts to nursing homes, education, health care, job training, libraries, aid to the disabled, and public transportation.

* 2007 figures.

Demand A Fair Budget With Shared Sacrifice!

